This permit is a probationary permit for the first six (6) months after the permit's issuance. After the probationary period has passed, this permit will be valid for an additional thirty (30) months unless you are notified of the Commission's refusal to extend the permit. You may not use the permit during the probationary period to obtain a commercial license plate for your motor vehicle.
The probationary permit will not automatically be renewed if (1) factual inaccuracies are included in the application, (2) you or any of the partners, officers or members of the entity holding the probationary permit are delinquent in the filing of tax returns and/or payment of taxes, or (3) you have purchased the business or stock of goods/assets from a business who has a tax liability.
A unique number which ties to the business physical location. If you have multiple locations then each location has its own number.
Probationary permit terms.

Example of a sales tax permit. Rule #710:65-7-6, which is contained in this booklet, requires documentation, in addition to the information on the permit, be obtained in order for a vendor to be relieved of liability from sales tax on sales which are later found to be subject to sales tax.
