ORBUS DISTRIBUTOR, DISPLAY AMERICA WINS AWARD FOR OFFICE DEPOT EXHIBIT

Woodridge, IL – May 15, 2018: Display America, a distributor partner of Orbus Exhibit & Display Group® recently designed a custom exhibit for Office Depot, which was awarded “Best New Exhibitor” at the 2018 Channel Partners Expo (CPE) in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The CPE took place at the Venetian and Sands Expo on April 17-20, and hosted over 6,000 industry experts and over 275 exhibitors. Best in Show winners were selected by a panel of editors as well as show attendees. Office Depot was one of three finalists for the Best New Exhibitor Award, and ultimately determined the winner.

Display America and Orbus’ exhibit for Office Depot won “Best New Exhibit” at the 2018 CPE in Las Vegas, NV.

“We’re very proud to be a part of Office Depot’s tremendous success at this year’s Channel Partners Expo,” said Carlos Quinones, President & CEO of Display America. “Our team did a fantastic job helping Office Depot achieve their goals of engagement and awareness.”

Office Depot’s goals for the exhibit focused on engagement, brand awareness and aesthetic. They wanted the booth to provide ample space for conversation with attendees, and to resemble the changes recently made at Office Depot stores. Through partnering with Orbus as their exhibit design and manufacturing partner, Display America helped Office Depot meet those goals. The aluminum hanging structure’s graphics matched the exhibit’s illuminated Vector Frame™ backwall and surrounding structures, which created continuity and brand consistency. Additionally, the central laminate counter and corner counters served as prime meeting locations for customer engagement.

Orbus is pleased to have designed and built this project for Display America, and looks forward to producing more award-winning exhibits.
