SignPro Systems, a Division of Orbus Introduces New Flat Wayfinding System

Woodridge, IL- April 30, 2018: SignPro Systems, a division of Orbus Exhibit & Display Group® is proud to announce the introduction of a new Flat Wayfinding Sign System to its extensive line of sign solutions. The new system is presented in a new catalog and on its website www.signprosystems.com.

The new flat sign system includes a wide range of flat signs including wall signs, directories, suspended signs, projecting signs, triangular signs and more. The highly demanded line of sign solutions are superior options for Orbus’ trade dealers to sell for interior environments such as commercial properties, office buildings, schools and universities, medical centers, places of worship, airports, retail spaces and more.

“Orbus’ curved line of wayfinding signs has been a great success! Said Adam Larson, Senior SignPro Sales Consultant. “The new flat system will offer customers another fast, affordable and superior option to choose from for their customers.”

SignPro offers a wide array of signage and wayfinding solutions. These user-friendly signs are perfect for any industry for any occasion. To view the extensive capabilities of SignPro, please be sure to visit <http://www.signprosystems.com/products-and-resources/case-studies/>.
